

Forty Shillings Reward.

RUN a way from the subscriber, living at Westchester, on Monday last the 26th instant, an indented Indian fellow, who calls himself John Anderfon, a very lusty well set fellow; had on a blue half-thick jacket, tow shirt and trowsers, and was bare foot, a new wool hat, had in his pocket a Scotch nightcap of a dull brown colour, it had been painted and it is likely he may wear it, is much pockmarked, has a very full face, short bushy hair. Whoever apprehends said fellow, so, that his Master may have him again, shall be paid the above Reward and all reasonable charges by me

MOSES WAYMAN.

Westchester, September, 27th 1773.

* * It is supposed he may endeavour to go to sea, as he has been bred to it.