

RUN away from their Masters William Effell of the City of Philadelphia, Blacksmith, and John Coats of the same place, Brickmaker, two Carolina Indians, a Man and a Woman, the Man's name is Peter, of a short Stature, about 26 Years of Age. he has a striped homespun Tickin Jacket and Breeches, also a Kersey Jacket, two shirts one fine the other Ozenbrigs, two pair of Shoes, and a Felt Hat. The Woman's name is Maria, of a middle Stature. well set, about 40 Years of Age, she hath with her four striped Petticoats and several Jackets and other Cloaths, a new pair of Shoes, she has also a Blanket with her. They both speak good English.

Whoever shall take up the said Indians, or either of them, and secures them, and gives Notice to their said Masters so that they may have them again, shall have 40 Shillings for each as a Reward, besides all reasonable Charges.