

* * * Ran-away from his Master Stephen Sawyer of Newbury, the 7th of April last, an Indian Man Servant named Peter, of middle stature, upwards of 30 Years, he had a small bunch in his Forehead, speaks with small Voice. He had on when he Ranaway, a Homespun brownish plain Coat, a homespun sea-green Jacket with pewter Buttons, a speckl'd woollen Shirt, Trowzer Breeches, yarn Stockings, and good shoes. Whoever will take up abovesaid Ranaway and him convey to his said Master, shall have Ten Pounds Reward, and all necessary charges paid them.