

RAN-away from his Master Paskee Whitford of North-Kingston, Rhode-Island Government, on the 22d of September last, an Indian Boy, named James, about 17 Years of Age, and suppos'd by some to be part White, of a middle Stature, about five Feet and an half high: He has had one of his great Toes cut off and joined on again, and stands some thing crooked: He had on when he went away, a thick Kersey cinnamon coloured Jacket, a pair of black and white strip'd Breeches, a Flannel Shirt, new Shoes, yarn Stockings folded half way up his Leg, and a new felt Hat. Whosoever will take up said Run-away Boy, and secure him in one of His Majesty's Goals, or deliver him safely to his Master, shall have Six Pounds, old Tenor, Rhode-Island Currency Reward, and all necessary Charges paid by Paskee Whitford.

Large old Cheshire Cheese to be Sold at Mr. Apthrop's House near the Swing-Bridge.