

B O S T O N, Sept. 30.

On Saturday Night last, the 25th. Instant, Three Indian Men, (being Captives) Cloth'd in English Habits like Servants, Ran-away from Dorchester in a Canoe, Intending (as is suppos'd) to Travel thro' the Country to the Eastward, and by that Means to escape out of the hands of the Government: His Majesty's good Subjects are Desired to enquire after, and if they may be found, to Apprehend and Convey them to His Majesty's Goal in Boston; And such Persons shall be rewarded to their Content.
