

RAN-away from Mr. James Bois of Raynham, in the County of Bristol, on the 24th of August, an Indian Man Servant, named Tobias Peas, but now calls himself James Wicked, about 20 Years of Age. He had on when he went away, a brown Coat with brass Buttons and large Cuffs turned up above the Elbows, the fore Parts lin'd with Shalloon; the Body with Toe Cloth, a striped double breasted Jacket, coarse white Linnen Shirt, Toe Trousers something short, blue worsted Stockings, round to'd single sol'd Shoes, white Linnen Cap, small Beaver Hat with a hole in the Brim about as big as a Musquet Bullet. He is a tall Fellow, with a full Face, goes something stooping, has a down Look, a smiling Countenance. Whoever shall take up said Runaway, and him convey to his said Master, shall have Five Pounds Reward, and all necessary Charges paid. All Masters of Vessels are caution'd against carrying off said Servant, on Penalty of the Law.
