

RAN AWAY from the subscriber the 4th inst. a mulatto or mustee boy, named JOHN CROSLEY, aged 17 years, about 5 feet 8 inches high, slim built; wore away a bombazet coat, yellow vest, striped chambray overalls, and napt hat; took with him a black jacket, trousers and surfout. Whoever will take up said runaway and secure or return him to me, shall be generously rewarded. All masters of vessels, or other persons are forbid to employ or harbor him on penalty of the law.

William Avery.

Groton, May 12, 1812.—31