

In December last, There was Advertisements of a Negro man Slave, and an Indian's Running away from Mr. William Pepperil of Kittery in the Province of Maine, desiring they might be apprehended where ever they came, and by vertue of said Advertisements coming (in the News Letter) to South-Caralonia, whither the said Negro and Indian had travelled, The Governour of said place has secured the said Runaways for the Owner.