It is very convenient for a Store, having cross Roads on it before the Door, and a thick settled Neighbourhood. The Land is exceeding good for all Sorts of Grain; and a good Title will be made for the same, on paying Fifty Pounds of the Purchase Money, and giving good Security for the Remainder, which may not be wanted for a considerable Time. RACHEL BRITTON.

JAMES HUNTER, of the City of Philadelphia, takes this Method of acquainting the Public, his Friends, and former Customers in particular, that he has removed from the House wherein he dwelt, in Strawberry alley, to his House in Second-street, between Mr. Whitebread's, the Sign of the King's Arms, and Mr. John Head's, nearly opposite the Old English Church; where he continues to sell, on the lowest Terms, Wholesale and Retail, a vast Assortment of Merchandize, chiefly imported in the late Vessels from Europe.
N. B. The said Hunter having, some Time ago, publicly requested all those indebted to him, to discharge their respective Balances, or come and give Obligations for the same, little Regard having been paid thereunto, this is for the last Time to acquaint such, that unless they, in a very short Time, comply with that, so reasonable a Request, he will be under the disagreeable Necessity of taking the most speedy and effectual Methods, to obtain Payment.

He wants a lively Lad, well recommended, as an Apprentice; likewise a Man that understands how to raise Hemp, and manufacture it fit for Cordage.

Salem County ff. August 22, 1765.
PURSUANT to an Act of General Assembly, of the Province of New-Jersey, lately passed, intituled, An Act for the Relief of insolvent Debtors, Notice is hereby given to the respective Creditors of Sealey Keen, and Job Stow, insolvent Debtors, now confined in the Goal of Salem, that the said Debtors intend to take the Benefit of the said Act, in order to their Discharge; and Saturday, the 14th Day of September next ensuing, is appointed by the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas for the Creditors of the said Sealey Keen, and Job Stow, to receive the Effects of the said Debtors, or to show Cause, if any they have, why the said Judges should not give them the Benefit of the said Act.

Kent County, on Delaware, August 21, 1765.
ALL Persons whom it may concern, are desired to take Notice, that a Petition will be presented to the Honourable House of Assembly of the Lower Counties, at their Meeting on the 20th of October next, praying that a Bill may pass the said House for the Stopping Little Creek, at some considerable Distance above the Landing Place, on the said Creek, from a Point of Land of James Blundell's, on Little Creek Side, to a Point of Land of George Robeson's, on Jones's Side, for the Improvement of the Marsh and Cripple above said Place. If any Person or Persons hath any Objections to the Premises, they may then appear to make them known. JAMES BLUNDELL.

TO be sold by Way of public Vendue, on the 26th Day of September inst, two valuable Lots of Land, situate in Germantown Township, 3 Miles from Philadelphia, one containing 9 Acres of Land, 17 Perches front, adjoining Germantown main Road, on which is erected a large two Story Stone House, a large Stone Barn, with two smaller Tenements, 4 Acres of Orchard, and is fit for a Gentleman's Country Seat, a Tavern, or any other public Business. The other Lot adjoining Crefham Road, about 40 Perches from the main Road, with a public Road to the said Lot, about 20 Acres of Land, 12 of which are cleared, and some Meadow Ground, the Remainder Woodland, on which is erected a good new two Story Stone House, large Barn, about 3 Acres Orchard of very fine grafted Fruit, a large Yard, with a Wall round it, a Well of excellent good Water, and is fit for a Gentleman's Country Seat, or any other Business.
