

R An-away from Capt. Philip Wheeler of Rehoboth the 28 Instant, an Indian Fellow, nam'd Nathan Harris, about 19 Years of Age, a stout well set Fellow, has short Hair, one of his Fingers crooked; he had on a blue worsted Jacket lin'd partly with blue Shalloon; & partly with striped Flannel, also two Flannel Jackets striped blue red & white, took with him two Shirts, one Toe & Linnen, the other checker'd blue & white Cotten & Worsted, Leather Breeches, worsted Stockings, new Shoes, felt Hat the brim crop'd. Whoever shall take up said Indian, & bring him to his Master in Rehoboth, or secure him so he may be had again, shall have three Pounds Reward old Tenor, and necessary Charges paid.

And all Masters of Vessels are caution'd against carrying off said Servant, on Penalty of the Law.

Rehoboth, Octob. 29. 1743.