

Advertisements.

Boston, September 5. 1740.

RA Runaway an Indian Man Servant, named Paul Abraham, of whitish Complexion, short black Hair, and a good Set of Teeth, about Thirty Years of Age, speaks pretty good English, a middle stature'd Fellow, He had on when he went away, a striped spotted Swan Skin red and white Jacket, a new blue and white Linen Check Shirt, a Pair of old Trousers, a Cinnamon or Chocolate colour'd pair of Cloth Breeches, with Linen Linings, and flowered yellow Mettle Buttons, very handsome ones, Worstead Stockings, new Shoes, and White Mettle Shoe-Buckles. He was seen on the Road going towards Barnstable.

Whoever takes up the said Runaway, and conveys him to his Master Caleb Philipps on Dock Square in Boston, shall have Five Pounds and all Charges paid by Caleb Philipps.

He is a subtle Fellow, and may change his Cloaths with some other Indian.