

DEserted from His Majesty's Ship Sea-Horse, about the 10th. of July last, an Indian Man named Hector, about 22 or 23 Years of Age, speaks very good English; wears his own Hair, being of a middle Stature, spare in Body, and thin in the Face. Whoever shall apprehend and safely convey him to the next County Goal, shall have 5 l. Reward, and all necessary Charges paid. Note, The said Indian is a very good Seaman, and is suppos'd to be gone to Sea: Whoever can truly discover the Ship or Vessel that carry'd him off, shall have 20 s. paid by Capt. Wentworth Paxton of Boston.
