

R A N-away from his Master Mr. Rowland Robinson of South-Kingston, on the 20th current, an Indian Boy Servant named Cæsar, aged about eighteen Years, is a likely well looking Fellow, had on when he went away a coarse Kersey Jacket & Breeches of a Sheep's grey colour, Yarn Stockings of the same colour, an under Jacket of blue Duroy, lin'd with red, a new Felt Hat, and a strip'd worsted Cap. It is supposed he stole from his Master a dirty black colour'd Mare. Whoever will take up said Servant and convey him to his said Master in South Kingston, shall have Fifteen Pounds old Tenor Reward, and all necessary Charges paid by Rowland Robinson.

Novemb. 25 . 1748.