

D E S E R T E D from COL. GREENE'S regiment, an Indian soldier, about 24 years of age, five feet nine inches high, was born at Warwick, in this State; has black hair; had on a red coat faced with white, but as he took with him a light coloured coat he may perhaps change his dress. He is strait built. Whoever will take up said deserter, and send him to the regiment, at Providence, or to the subscriber, or secure him in any gaol, shall receive fifty dollars reward, and all reasonable charges paid by,

DAVID JOHNSON, Lieut.

Providence, April 11, 1780.
