

DESERTED from Gloucester, on the 13th Instant, one ROBERT WIRE, an Indian, who had enlisted into the Continental Army for three Years: Had on when he deserted an old brown Coat, a flowered Flannel Jacket, red Overalls, white Yarn Stockings, and new Shoes: He is a short thick Fellow, about 27 Years of Age.—Whoever will take up said Defenter, and commit him to Providence Gaol, shall receive Twenty Silver Dollars Reward, and all necessary Charges, paid by

ASA KIMBALL.

N. B. All Masters of Vessels are forbid to carry off said Defenter.

Providence, March 15, 1781.