

 Ran-away from Mr. Daniel Watts of Winnesimit on the 6th. instant, a Negro Fellow named Primus, about 25 Years of Age, a tall likely Fellow, speaks good English, & can read well, has a Scar on his right Cheek, & a nub on the second joynt of his Thumbs. He had on a tickem Jacket, blue shag Coat, old leather Breeches; but he carry'd with him a Mourning Suit; Cinnamon colour'd Coat with brass Buttons, two Hats, 4 pair of Stockings, and a Gun with a new Rammer. He formerly liv'd with Mr. Watt's deceas'd, who kept the Ferry House in Winnesimit.

Whoever shall take up the abovesaid Runaway and him convey to his said Master, shall have Forty Shillings Reward and all necessary Charges paid. Boston, Decemb. 7th. 1718.

||¶¶ Ran-away on the 13th. of Novemb. Instant, from their Master Mahuman Hindsell of Deerfield, Two Men Servants. The one John Griffin, a White young Man, about 16 years of Age, something peck broken, short brown hair, had on a Castor Hat, a Kersy Coat, homespun Jacket with Pewter Buttons, leather Breeches, and gray yarn Stockings.

The other a Pequot Indian, named Peter Pux, alias Pompey, of midling stature, hair about 3 Inches long, has a remarkable Scar on the midst of his Forehead, had on a blue Broadcloth Coat, Kersy Jacket with Pewter Buttons, and leather Breeches, speaks good English. They carried away with them 2 Guns, 2 Silver Spoons, & 2 Duffil Blankets.

Whoever will take up and convey the said Runaways, or either of them, to their abovesaid Master at Deerfield, shall have Five Pounds Reward for each of them, and all necessary Charges paid. Boston, Novemb. 28. 1718.