

R An-away the 6th of October from his Master Eliha Green of Warwick in the Colony of Rhode Island, an Indian Man Servant Named Simon George, of a middle Stature and a pale Complexion, he had with him a Cinnamon Coloured Jacket, and a pair of Long breeches, a Woolen Shirt, and a pair of Black Worsted Stockings, and an old Hat: Whoever shall Apprehend said Run-away and him Convey to his abovesaid Master shall have Forty Shillings Reward, and all necessary Charges paid.