

has pursuant to his Majesty's Directions marked out proper Places for building 11 Towns on the Rivers there, the District of each whereof is to contain the Extent of 20000 Acres of Land, to be divided into Shares of 50 Acres for each Mann, Woman or Child of one Family, which may be augmented as the Planters are in Condition to cultivate a large quantity of Ground. Each Town to be formed into a Parish, the Extent whereof to be six Miles round the Town. The Rent is to be 4 s. for every 100 Acres, except that for the first 10 Years the Lands are to be entirely free.—His Majesty further grants to every European Servant, whether Man or Woman, 50 Acres of Lands free of all Rents for 10 Years, which shall be distributed to them after having served their Masters for the Time agreed on.

On Saturday last a Gentleman living near Epfom sent his Servant to Mr. Samuel Cranmer's, Banker in Fleet-street, to receive 160 l. which Money was put up in his Boots; but meeting with some Sharpers in returning back, he went to Gaming and lost 60 l. of it, telling his Master when he came Home, that he had been robb'd; and to make his Story gain Credit, cut his Boot, and made a large Wound in his Leg.

St. Ann's, Jamaica, Aug. 23. Lying in our Harbour, Capt. Wood from Boston, bound for London, and likely to sail about the first of October next.

Philadelphia, September 21. On Monday last Capt. Chrockat arrived here with about 350 Palatines. Last Night two Pinks arrived also with Palatines, and a Snow from Bristol.

Boston, October 2. On Tuesday last some young Folks who went on a Frolick from this Town to Noddle's Island, forgot to make fast their Boat at the Wharf, so that it went a-drift; which a young Man of the Company (a Baker) observing, he stript himself in order to swim and fetch it to the Shore; but before he could reach the Boat he was drowned.

It hath hardly ever known that this Town has been so universally afflicted with Colds as at this Time, abundance of People having been lately taken down, which made our Assemblies yesterday appear very thin.

On Monday Last a Lad about 16 Years of Age walking the streets seemingly in very good Health, and who had been at his VVork just before, fell down in a Fit, was taken up and carried into a House, and had means used to recover him, but to no purpose, and dyed in less than half an Hour.

Newport, October 4.

Last Week dy'd at South Kingstown, Mr. Christopher Helme, Clerk of the Inferiour Court, for King's County, much lamented.

On Friday last was drawn Mr. Lucas's Lottery. The House, valued at 7. 510, the 7. 50 Prize, and several others were drawn by Adventurers in Boston.

On Sunday last, arrived Capt. Gibbs from Jamaica, by whom we have Advice, that in May last, a Spanish Gally took a Company of Musketo-Men in a Periaugua, who made little or no Resistance; but soon after they took an Opportunity to secure their Arms, and fell upon the Spaniards, destroyed most of them, and carry'd the Gally and Periaugua to the Musketos. He adds, That Capt. Peters, who commands one of the Party Companys in Jamaica, a few Days before his sailing, took a large Negro Town, of which he was in Possession when he came away; that he had kill'd and taken about 40 Negroes, and expected Recruits every Day to secure the Town for the English Inhabitants.

Custom-House, Newport. Entered Inwards.

Waterman from St. Christophers, Rouse and Broughton from Maryland, Seares from Eustaria, Durfey from Virginia, Gibbs from Jamaica, Stodder from Hispaniola, Barker from North Carolina, Carr from Antigua, Cornel from New-York.

Outward Bound. Pope for Antigua, Newton and Brown for Surinam, Sweeting for South-Carolina, Freebody and Norton for Leward Islands.

Cleared Out. Linzey for Antigua, Cranlton and Wanton for Leward Islands, Wickham for St. Christophers, Broughton for Maryland, and Jepson for Boston.

ADVERTISEMENT S.

Newport, October 3. 1732.

Ran away on the 1st of this Instant October from his Mistress Mrs. Elizabeth Cole of South-Kingstown, a Spanish Indian Man named James, about 20 Years of Age, somewhat round shoulderd, of a short Stature, pale Complexion, and speaks very good English: Had on when he went away a Beaver Hat, a Silk Mountain Handkerchief, a light Grey Coat, with long Pockets, and a dark Grey Gambler Jacket, Tow Cloath Breeches and Shirt, and Grey Yarn Stockings.

Whoever takes the said Indian, and conveys him to his said Mistress, shall have Five Pounds Reward, and all necessary Charges paid.

TO BE SOLD:

About 120 Acres of Land in North Kingstown, 40 of which is fenced, and between 20 and 30 improv'd, situate on the Country Road. There is also a good double House on the Land inclosed, and a young Orchard of about 20 Apple-Trees, some of which have born this Year. Enquire of Capt. William Havens of said Town and know further.

Thomas Staples of Newport, desires those who have not yet taken up their Notes given for his Lottery Tickets, speedily to pay their Money, and receive their Notes.

N. B. Several Prizes are yet in the said Staples's Hands, not yet claim'd, which he desires may be sent for.

A good new House and Shop, and the Land thereto unto belonging, situate over against the Market-House in King-Street, Newport, with sundry good, new, and vendable Goods, to be sold by Lottery. Conditions of the Sale may be seen at most publick Places in Newport and Boston.

Gentlemen of Capacity and Leisure, who are willing to encourage this Paper, by communicating their Thoughts in it, are desir'd to direct their Letters to the Author of the Rhode-Island Gazette.

If Masters of Vessels arriving in Newport, from any Part of the West Indies, or other Places to which the Merchants in Boston usually trade, will give an Account of the most remarkable Occurrences, and what Vessels belonging to Boston were long in the Ports from whence they come, at the Time of their Departure, such Accounts will be gratefully receiv'd and inserted in this Paper: And 'tis desir'd that Masters of Vessels sailing out of Newport, will put themselves to the small Trouble of an Enquiry into Affairs abroad, in order to make it the more useful and entertaining.

Gentlemen and others in the Country are likewise desir'd to send an Account of what occurs in their Neighbourhood, (thought proper to be made publick) to the Printer of this Paper; which will be acknowledg'd as a Favour to him and his Customers.

Subscriptions are taken in by John Franklin, Tallow-Chandler, in Boston, and the Printer hereof.