

New-York, January, 31.

On the 19th Instant arrived the Ship John Capt. Samuel Lancelot Commander from Jamaica, which Island he left the 19th of December, and brings News that Capt. Rackum a Pirate and ten of his Men were Executed there for Piracy and hung up in Chains, two Women who were taken with them were Condemned, but pleaded their Belles, and nine Men who joined Rackum just before he was taken, were to be Tryed also for Piracy.

As Capt. Lancelot came out he met a Pilot Boat, going in with the Captain of a 24 Gun Ship from Guinea, on Board who told him the Winchelsea Man of War upon the Coast of Guinea, had taken a Pirate Ship of 40 Guns and hung up 130 Pirates the next Morning, and hoped soon to clear the Seas of those Vermin.

He also told him that two days before, he was chased by three large Ships with Spanish Colours which he took for Men of War, that the smallest came up with him, and offering to board him, but losing his Bowsprit and foretop-mast, on which he (the Guinea Man) got away, our sailing the other two.

On Saturday Night a Spanish Indian Slave belonging to William Dobbs of this City Portman, and six other Spanish Indians and Negroes run-away with a small Sloop belonging to the same William Dobbs and are supposed to be gone for St. Augustine, but its feared they'll Perish having no artist nor any Hatches to the Sloop but several of them know how to work her, they have Bedding, Provisions, and all other conveniencies aboard for dressing Victuals. If any persons meet and take them up they will be well Rewarded.

Entered James D.