

Elk-Ridge Furnace, on the 26th of May last, Five Negro Men, viz.

One named Tom*, he is a very cunning Rogue, has often ran away, and is very artful in sculking: The other Four are New Negroes, and can speak but very little English.

Whoever takes up the said Negroes, and brings them to the Elk-Ridge Furnace, or secures them so that they may be had again, shall have Six Pounds Reward, and reasonable Charges, paid by

CALEB DORSEY.

N. B. The Negro named Tom, formerly belonged to Mr. Thomas Ringgold, and is very well acquainted with the Bay; therefore, perhaps, may attempt to escape by Water.

CALEB DORSEY.
Annapolis Maryland Gazette,
July 8, 1762.

RAN away on the 21st of June last, from the Subscriber, living near the Mouth of the Eastern Branch, a slim Mulatto Fellow named William*, by Trade a Carpenter, near 30 Years of Age, and about 5 Feet 10 Inches high. He had on when he went away, an Osnabrigs Shirt and Trowsers, with a Leather Apron, and is supposed to have taken other Things with him.

Whoever takes up the said Fellow, and secures him so as the Subscriber may have him again, shall have FOUR PISTOLES Reward, and reasonable Charges.

NOTLEY YOUNG.

N.B. He has been making his Way towards the Back Country.

SIX POUNDS REWARD.

RAN away from the Subscriber, living near the Town of Joppa, in Baltimore County, in May last, a lusty well-set Mulatto Slave named Mike* (but it is probable he will change it): he is about 24 Years of Age, has a large Face, a flat Nose, wide Mouth, and much resembles an Indian in Colour. He can read, and, I believe, write a little. His Apparel cannot be well described, as he had many Confederates in the Neighbourhood, who may have furnished him with Cloaths.

Whoever takes up the said Runaway, and brings him home, shall have Four Pounds Reward, if taken in the County; and if taken at a greater Distance, and secured in any Goal, so that his Master may get him again, shall have Six Pounds Reward, paid by

PETER CARROLL.

All Masters of Vessels are forbid to take him off at their Peril.
