

RUN away from THOMAS WILDE, of Philipstorough, on the 24th of July; an Indian Fellow, named Jacob, aged about Twenty Years, of a middle Stature, speaks good English: Had on when he went away, a Felt Hat rubst round with yellow Silk, a brown Coat and Waistcoat, light-blue Breeches and Stockings, one Tow Shirt and one fine, a Pair of single seal'd Shoes; his Hair is off:

Whoever secures the said Servant, so that his Master may have him again, shall have Forty-shillings Reward, and reasonable Charges paid by THOMAS WILDE.

N. B. All Masters of Vessels, and Others, are forbid to carry off the said Fellow, at their Peril.

---