

RAN away from his Master, the Rev. Mr. Johnson of Stradford, in Connecticut, Sept. 1746. an Indian Man named Pallas, aged about 19 Years, a good looking Fellow, with short Hair, and a worsted Cap, a good grey homemade plain cloath Coat full trim'd with black, and linnen Breeches, speaks pretty good English, and had with him two Bags with some Provision in them, marked with Ink S. I. If any one shall secure the said Indian that he may be recovered by his said Master, shall have Four Pounds Reward, and all necessary Charges paid.