

R A N away from the subscriber about the 26th of May last, an Indian boy named GEORGE TIKEING PAUL, aged 13 years; a well-set lusty boy of his age. Had on when he went away, an old cloth-coloured woollen jacket a striped flannel jacket, a pair of dark coloured woollen trowsers, and a Scotch knit cap. Carried off with him, two dark coloured linen jackets, a striped linen shirt, and a pair of striped linen trowsers. Any person who will take up said boy, and deliver him to the subscriber in Stonington, shall have Two Dollars reward, and all necessary charges paid, by

JONATHAN GRAY.

Stonington, 22d June, 1786.