JOHN HALES.

Virginia Gazette or American Advertiser (Hayes),
July 10, 1784.

RAN away from the subscriber, living in King William County, on the 24th of April 1784, a negro lad named MARTIN, about 17 or 18 years of age, yellow complexion, slender made, and has a very insinuating tongue; had on when he went away, a white yarn waistcoat and breeches, cotton shirt, and an old raccoon hat. He run away some time last year, and passed by the name of Reuben Gun, and fell in at Petersburg with one George Oast, who kept him as a waiting-man, and he passed as the said Oast's own property; and after being advertised in the Virginia Gazette, was apprehended and taken up in the Town of Petersburg, by Alexander Gordon. It is more than probable he may endeavour to get on board some vessel, or pass as a free man; and I do suppose his aim will be for Portsmouth or Norfolk, where he was some time when a waiting man to Oast. Whoever will take up the said negro lad, and deliver him to me, shall receive five pounds, if taken fifty miles from home, if nearer, in proportion to the distance.

FENDALL SOUTHERLAND, sen.

Virginia Gazette or American Advertiser (Hayes),
July 17, 1784.

RAN away from the subscriber, on the 2d of June, a short black negro WOMAN, about eighteen years old, has a scar on her left arm, it is thought that she is gone to Richmond or Portsmouth. She endeavours to pass as a free woman, her name is FANNY. Whoever apprehends the above negro, and secures her so that I get her again, shall receive forty shillings.

JOHN RAWLEIGH.

New Kent, July 8, 1784.

Virginia Gazette or American Advertiser (Hayes),
August 7, 1784.

RAN away from the subscriber, on the 27th of June last, a likely West-India born mulatto man slave, by the name of LEWY, about 27 or 28 years of age, about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, well made, has a low inward speech, and generally hangs his head when spoken to; carried off with him a likely black negro woman by the name of CHLOE, who is much pitted with the smallpox. They carried many changes of cloathes with them. The fellow, the greater part of the late war, having been employed in the lead mines, under the management of Colonel Lynch, and only brought home in May, 1783, it is supposed he will endeavour to get back to that part of the Country, with the wench, and there pass as free negroes. If any person will apprehend the said negroes, and bring them to me, or confine them in any gaol (not above Richmond) and advertise them, so that I get them again, shall receive FIVE POUNDS for each, and all reasonable expences paid.

TEN POUNDS REWARD.

RAN away from the subscriber about six weeks ago, two SLAVES; one named DICK, a stout lusty mulatto fellow, about twenty two years of age, has large features and eyes, and a very roguish down look. He beats a drum pretty well, is artful and plausible, and well acquainted in most parts of Virginia and Maryland, having formerly waited upon me. CLEM, a well set black negro lad, of about 19 years of age, has a remarkable large scar of a burn, which covers the whole of one of his knees. 'Tis impossible to describe their dress, as I am told they have stolen a variety of cloaths since their elopement. I suspect they have made towards Baltimore or Philadelphia, or may have got on board some bay or river craft. I will give the above reward to any person who will bring them to me in Fairfax County, or secure them in any gaol, and give me notice so that I get them again, or FIVE POUNDS for either of them.
