

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber the 26th of January last, an Indian boy, named Thomas Nees, aged 17 years, lame in his right leg. Had on when he went away, blue jacket and trowsers, new shoes bound round, by trade a shoe-maker.— All masters of vessels and others are forewarned not to take him away or harbour him at their peril. Whoever takes up the said boy shall have the above reward by delivering him to his master.

William M^cCulley,

The corner of Front and Chesnut Streets, Philad.

February 4

d6t*