

DEserted from my company, in Col. Crary's regiment, about the middle of February last, James Allen, a likely, well-set Indian fellow, 22 years of age, 5 feet 5 inches high; he belongs to East-Greenwich. Also Bristol Prime, a lusty Negro fellow, 22 years of age, 5 feet 9 inches high; he belongs to Stonington, in Connecticut. Said deserters, it is supposed, went to sea in the Warren frigate. Whoever will secure them, and send them to the subscriber, at Bristol, in the state of Rhode-Island, or give him notice of their being secured, shall have Three Dollars reward for each, and reasonable charges, paid by.

JAMES PARKER, Capt.
