

Eight Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscribers on Sunday the 25th of May last, an apprentice boy named WILLIAM WILLSON, between 18 and 19 years of age, part Indian, with black eyes and hair, and much addicted to strong liquor—supposed to be about 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, and well set: Had on when he went away, a homespun olive coloured coat with metal buttons, a purple coloured jacket, a new coarse shirt, striped trowsers, wool hat, a pair of old shoes with large old plated buckles. He went off with one Christopher Tippe, an Indian lad, about the same age and size; had on an old light coat, the fore parts of his jacket blue cloth, new coarse linen shirt and trowsers and wool hat: They were both brought up to farming, were seen together near New-Brunswick, on their way to New-York, where said Tipper has a sister living. Any person who will deliver said runaway to Job Pearson, near Trenton, or John H. Smith, in Flushing, Queens county, on Long-Island, shall be entitled to the above reward.

JOB PEARSON,

JOHN H. SMITH.

June, 25, 1794.

83-2aw. 3w. 4