

RUN-away, the 13th of April ultimo, from Simon Fleet, of Huntington, on Long-Island, an indented Indian Apprentice, named Charles; he is Long-Island born, and 18 Years old: Had on a Pair of Tow Trowsers, and a homespun Great Coat, and is supposed to be gone towards New-York. Any Person apprehending and securing said Apprentice, if on Long-Island, shall have 30s. Reward, or if taken in New-York, 40s. and all reasonable Charges, paid by SIMON FLEET.

All Masters of Vessels are hereby forbid to carry him off.
