

The Deposition of Thomas Warren of full age

This Dependent Testifies and saith That sometime in the year of our Lord 1703 he was shipped at Boston in New England to serve as Mate on Board the Ship called the Portsmouth Galley James Riley Commander, to proceed on a voyage in Quest of a Wreck supposed to be, according to Information from whores about the Bahama Islands and that they had shipped on Board the Ship ten Indians at Boston and to serve as Divers in the voyage which the Indians of this Dependent was informed were shipped on Board the Ship by Mr. William Hoarley whom he the Dependent saw bring the Indians on Board. And farther this Dependent saith That they sailed out of Boston in prosecution of the voyage sometime in December 1703, and that the ten Indians were on board and faithfully attended the service of the Ship until the twenty ninth day of April 1704. But they found no Wreck, only at Wallis Island in the voyage of the Ship among the Bahamas they found half a dozen or half a score Guns upon the Shore and that some of the Indians were commanded to go down and take them and did so and dived and flung the Guns and so they were got on board. and on the aforesaid twenty ninth day of April the Ship was taken in the Harbour of Cumana where some of the Indians were killed in the fight, & some of them jumped over board as is supposed, & so were lost.

Boston 4. May 1705.
