

agreeable countenance, speaks well, has a smooth skin, is of the middle size, and very likely; he carried away several suits of clothes, so that his dress cannot be described. He has waited on and rode about with me for some months, and is acquainted in several parts of the country; but I suppose he is gone to Nansemond, as he was raised near the Old Town, or Suffolk, and sold, some years ago, by Mr. John Driver. I am told he has been seen at or near the house of Mr. Holloway. Whoever will take up the said runaway, and secure him in gaol, shall have TWENTY SHILLINGS, but if brought to me FORTY, besides what the law directs. All masters of vessels, and others, are forbid to harbour or carry the said slave out of the country.

RUN away from the subscriber, on Friday the 25th of February, a half Indian fellow who calls himself JACK BROWN, and was formerly the property of Colonel John Bolling, of Goochland; he is about 40 years old, 5 feet 6 inches high, is pretty light of the sort, his nose is crooked, which appears to have been done by a blow, has lost some of his teeth before, which seem to be rotted out, is extremely fond of liquor, speaks very plain and bold, and I imagine will endeavour to pass for a free man, as he once made an elopement for three years, and went under that character. He had on a Negro cotton jacket and breeches, an indifferent shirt, and rappers of blue striped saddlecloth. All masters of vessels are hereby forewarned from taking him out of the colony. Whoever brings him to me, or confines him in any of his Majesty's gaols, so that I get him, shall be handsomely rewarded, besides what the law allows.

RUN away from the subscriber, near Richmond town, in Henrico, a Negro fellow named JACOB, of a middle size, about 5 feet 8 inches high, near 40 years of age, is well made, and has a full face, has a scar on one of his hands, between his forefinger and thumb; had on and took with him when he went away, a cotton jacket, dyed with maple bark and copperas, a brown cloth coat, a pair of buckskin breeches, a big coat, of an ash colour, yarn stockings, country shoes. He is a sensible fellow, has waited on gentlemen all over the country, and is known among the Negroes in most of the towns. He run off once before, and was taken up at Annapolis, in Maryland, and passed for a free man, as I imagine he will now.

RUN away from the subscriber, in Cumberland county, on the 26th of February a Mulatto man slave named SANCHO, appears to be about 40 years old, stoops a good deal, and is by trade a carpenter and cooper; had on, when he went away, the usual cloathing of Negroes, and carried with him a broadcloth Coat, mixed with something of a violet colour, a blue duffil coat and blanket, a large knife, made in the shape of a butcher's, the blade of which is broad, and about 15 inches long. Absconded with him a white servant woman . . . I expect they will change their names and endeavour to pass for husband and wife, as free people. Whoever will bring the said runaways to me shall receive SIX POUNDS, if taken in Virginia, and TEN POUNDS, if out of it, besides what the law allows. I forewarn all persons from carrying them out of the colony. The fellow is outlawed.
